

Cline, Dr.Terry L.

From: Cline, Dr.Terry L.
Sent: Thursday, February 12, 2015 7:24 AM
To: Cox-Kain, Julie; Frioux, Toni D.; Ronck, Stephen W.; 'ronwoodson@me.com'
Subject: FW: Smoking Cuases of Mortality
Attachments: SmokingMortalityNEJMFeb122015.pdf

Fyi. tc

From: Raskob, Gary E. (HSC) [mailto:Gary-Raskob@ouhsc.edu]
Sent: Wednesday, February 11, 2015 9:51 PM
To: Cline, Dr.Terry L.; gary_cox@occhd.org; Bruce Dart, Ph.D., Director (bdart@tulsa-health.org)
Subject: Smoking Cuases of Mortality

Dear Terry, Gary and Bruce

The attached article from tomorrow's edition of the New England Journal of Medicine is profound- it documents significant excess mortality among smokers beyond the causes of death known to be attributable to smoking, and suggests that smoking is likely the cause of 60,000 more deaths per year in the US than currently attributed to it.

Gary